

I respectfully request the FCC and the NAB to withdrawal any action to stop any XM Satelite Radio benefits, inclusive of weather and traffic. This is a valuable service, and a service in which I am willing to pay for. America is still a free country where less government involvement the better. Let the people decide.

Respectfully,

Pierre F. Walmsley